9.6. The start date of the notice shall be the date of its receipt by the respective addressed party to the Agreement. The notice, respectively the statement by the Bank, shall be considered to have been received by the Client when it is sent to the latest management address indicated on the relevant register. When the Client has changed address but the new address is not indicated on the relevant register, the notice, respectively the statement by the Bank, shall be considered to have been properly received, irrespective of what is marked on the acknowledgment of receipt.

10. Notwithstanding item 9 above, a fundraising account, respectively an account for capital keeping/donation shall be closed in the following cases:

10.1. After entering the company/ the foundation, respectively the circumstance of increasing the capital of the company, in the Commercial Register, certified with a certificate issued by the Commercial Register with the Registry Agency; or

10.2. After termination of the procedure on registration/ increase of the capital, certified by the minutes of the meeting of the founders/ partners, respectively the shareholders, containing the decision on termination of the procedure, or any other relevant document. In such case, the Bank shall pay to the depositors the full amount of the installments in the currency in which they have been deposited at the time of making the deposit and the interests accrued until then shall be distributed among the depositors in proportion to their installments;

10.3 unilaterally by the Bank, in case that in the first 6 (six) months of the date of opening the account, none of the circumstances referred in items 10.1 and 10.2 above have occurred; or

10.4. In other cases envisaged in the law.

11. Notwithstanding item 9 above, an insolvency account shall be closed after the Client-Account Holder submits the following to the Bank:

11.1. a copy of the judgment by the relevant regional court (the court in charge of insolvency matters), certifying the deletion of the company from the Commercial Register and a certificate issued by the competent registration authority certifying the circumstances referred in this item; or

11.2. a copy of a court judgment, certifying the termination of the insolvency proceedings and a certificate issued by the competent registration authority certifying the circumstances referred in this item; or

11.3. an explicit written order by the Client-Account Holder, upon presentation of an authorization granted by the relevant regional court (the court in charge of insolvency matters).

12. Further to the provisions of item 9 above, a liquidation account shall be closed after the submission of:

12.1. a certificate issued by the competent registration authority, certifying the deletion of the Client-Account Holder from the Commercial Register, provided that there are no undistributed funds on the liquidation account; or 12.2. a certificate issued by the competent registration authority, certifying the termination of the liquidation proceedings.

13. In each case of termination, as referred in items 9 to 12 above, the Client shall have to pay to the Bank the fees and commissions for the payment services provided until the time of termination, whereas the paid fees and commissions are not subject to refund.

13.1. The Bank shall refuse to close a Bank Account when there is an account preservation order against the account.

13.2. When closing a Bank Account with available funds on it, the amount shall be kept by the Bank until the Client receives it, but no interest will be accrued thereon. However, the Bank may offset and collect its fees and commissions payable for the keeping, pursuant to the Tariff;

14. In case of reorganisation or winding-up of a Client-legal entity, the funds on the Client's accounts shall be paid to the Client's legal successors after the submission of the documents necessary for their identification, as referred in these General Terms and Conditions. The Bank shall not be held liable for payments executed pursuant to the established procedure until the receipt of a notification supported by the documents and certificates, required by the legislation in force, on the reorganisation or winding-up of the Client.

SECTION IV. PAYMENT SERVICES PROVIDED BY THE BANK FROM AND ON PAYMENT ACCOUNTS

15. The Bank provides the following payment services from and on payment accounts:

- Services related to depositing cash on hand on a payment account as well as the related transactions of servicing the payment account;
- Services related to withdrawal of cash on hand from a payment account as well as the related transactions of servicing the payment account;
- execution of payment transactions, including transfer of funds on a payment account of the Client with the Bank or on an account with another bank, including where the funds are part of a loan granted to the Client;
- execution of direct debits, including one-off direct debits;
- execution of credit transfers, including orders for periodic transfers;
- execution of cash on hand transfers;
- Other main and additional payment services agreed in writing between the Bank and the Client.

16. The Bank shall have the right to limit or extend the scope of the payment services offered by it as well as to change the procedure and conditions for accepting, processing and executing payment orders based on the amendments to the applicable legislation, for security reasons or for improvements to the respective service, notifying the Clients of the introduced changes pursuant to the procedure established in these General Terms and Conditions.

SECTION V. FEES, COMMISSIONS, INTERESTS AND EXCHANGE RATES

17. For the payment services provided by the Bank, the Client shall have to pay fees and commissions determined in terms of type, amount and currency as per the Tariff for fees and commissions of UniCredit Bulbank AD applicable to legal entities and sole proprietors ("The Tariff") valid as of the time of execution of the payment service and made available at the the Bank's teller's desks, on its website or the electronic banking channels, and/or agreed in writing between the Bank and the Client.

18. The exchange rates which the Bank applies when executing the payment transactions, are „buy/sell“ currency rates, respectively cash-on-hand/on account“ on the day of execution of the transaction, whereas for amounts exceeding EUR 10,000, or its equivalent in BGN or other foreign currency, the Client may negotiate a preferential exchange rate. Information about the exchange rates of the Bank can be obtained by the Client at the Bank's teller's desks, on its website or the electronic banking channels.

19. With respect to the bank accounts, the Bank shall apply the interest rates, which are valid at the time of interest accrual and are defined in terms of type, amount and currency in the Interest Bulletin of UniCredit Bulbank AD for legal entities and sole proprietors ("The Interest Bulletin"), valid at the time of interest accrual and made available at the the Bank's teller's desks, on its website or the electronic banking channels and/or have been agreed in writing between the Bank and the Client.

20. The Bank shall have the right to change unilaterally the values of the applicable exchange rates and/or the amounts of the interests, fees and commissions charged by it in line with the market levels and trends and the values applicable at any given time shall be made available at the the Bank's teller's desks, on its website or the electronic banking channels.

20.1. Any amendments to the Interest Bulletin and the exchange rates shall be applied immediately, as of the date of their announcement.

20.2. Any amendments to the Tariff shall enter into force in accordance with the provisions under item 87, first sentence of the General Terms and Conditions.

21. When the amendments to the Tariff introduce rates for fees and commissions which are more favourable for the Clients, they shall be applied immediately, as of the date of their announcement.

SECTION VI. OBLIGATIONS AND INFORMATION PROVIDED BY CLIENTS ON THE EXECUTION OF PAYMENT TRANSACTIONS

22. To ensure the accurate execution of a payment order for payment services, Clients shall be obliged to complete precisely, accurately and fully all the information in the payment documents that is required for the correct execution of the ordered transaction, including the international number of the bank account (IBAN), the international bank identification code of the bank (BIC), in the cases where such is required in accordance with the applicable legislation or any other unique identification number of the Beneficiary's account.

22.1. The Bank shall not be held liable for the non-execution or inaccurate execution of a payment transaction when there is inaccuracy in the IBAN of the Beneficiary's account, indicated by the Client-Payer, and in the cases where the provider of the payment services is not a bank - the unique identification number of the Beneficiary's account or the unique identification number of the Beneficiary.

23. The Client shall be obliged, within the period referred in item 27 of these General Terms and Conditions, to notify the Bank of the unauthorized or inaccurately executed payment transaction. If within the specified period the Client does not dispute the unauthorized or inaccurately executed payment transaction in writing to the Bank, it shall be considered that he/she has given his/her consent to it and accepts its consequences.

24. The Client shall be obliged to provide the necessary funds on his/her bank accounts for keeping a minimum balance on them in accordance with the Interest Bulletin.

25. The Client shall be obliged to pay all fees, commissions and expenses specified in the Tariff for the maintenance and servicing of the bank accounts and in relation to the payment services provided to him/her. In case the necessary funds are not provided on the bank account and no eligible payments exceeding the remaining amount on the bank account (overdraft) have been agreed with the Bank, the Bank shall collect the fees payable to it up to the amount available on the bank account. The remaining portion of the outstanding amounts shall be covered with priority with the funds first received on the bank account and in case they are not sufficient – with the subsequent funds that are received.

SECTION VII. INFORMATION PROVIDED BY THE BANK FOR THE EXECUTION OF PAYMENT TRANSACTIONS

26. The Bank shall provide to its Clients information about all executed payment transactions and the available balance in the form of a bank statement. The bank statements and/or complete information on the received transfers in foreign currency or BGN shall be given to the Client, respectively his/her proxy, in a manner and for such a period as requested by the Client at the time of completing the documents for opening the account.

26.1. Information on an ordered available money transfer shall be provided at the teller's desks of the Bank, where the transfer is executed, only at the request of the Client-Payer of the payment service.

26.2. Information on received available money transfers shall be provided at the teller's desks of the Bank upon request by the Beneficiary of the payment service.

27. The Bank shall correct an unauthorized or incorrectly executed payment transaction only when the Client notifies the Bank without undue delay after becoming aware of such a transaction, which gives rise to a claim, however, no later than 13 (thirteen) months of the date of debiting of Client's account.

28. The Client shall be considered to have become aware of the unauthorized or incorrectly executed payment transaction no later than the time of receipt of information as per Art. 57, para. 1 or Art. 65, para. 1 of the Payment Services and Payment Systems Act (as applicable).

29. In case of an unauthorized payment transaction, the payer's bank shall immediately make a refund to the payer for the amount of the unauthorized payment transaction and in any case no later than the end of the next business day after the Bank has identified or has been notified about the unauthorized transaction, unless the Bank has reasonable doubts about fraud and notifies the relevant competent authorities in such instance. Whenever necessary, the payer's bank shall restore the payer's account to the condition in which it would have been if the unauthorized payment transaction was not executed. The value date for crediting the payer's payment account shall be no later than the date on which the account was debited with the amount of the unauthorized payment transaction. The refund by the bank for the amount of the unauthorised payment transaction on the payer's payment account does not prevent the Bank from requesting from the payer, as per the established legal procedure, to pay the refunded amount of the payment transaction if the payment transaction was authorised by the payer.

30. Clients shall be obliged to follow up and be informed, obtaining information from the teller's desks of the Bank, the channels of the Bank for electronic banking and/or the website of the Bank, where the Bank complies with its obligation to provide the information required by law and to keep updated, as of the respective time, complete and detailed data in respect of the content of the effective and applicable: Interest Bulletin, Tariff, exchange rates, the content of the present General Terms and Conditions and of the products offered by the Bank for the relevant payment accounts.

31. Clients shall be obliged to keep themselves informed at all times and follow up for any amendments to these General Terms and Conditions, the Tariff, the Interest Bulletin, the exchange rates, made available at the teller's desks, the website and the electronic channels of the Bank and may not refer to a lack of information about the currently effective terms and conditions of the Bank at any time, listed in detail above, which are binding for the Clients and which apply to them as of the date on which they are announced and made available at the teller's desks of the Bank and through its electronic channels, with the exception of the amendments which are applied with respect to Clients upon the expiry of the two-month period as of the date on which they are announced and made available, in accordance with the provisions of item 87, first sentence of these General Terms and Conditions.

SECTION VIII. FORM AND PROCEDURE FOR GIVING CONSENT FOR THE EXECUTION OF PAYMENT TRANSACTIONS. EXECUTION OF PAYMENT TRANSACTIONS.

- 32. The Bank shall accept, process and execute payment orders and perform payment services in local and foreign currency on the territory of the country and abroad upon submission of properly drawn up payment documents containing all the required details as per a sample form in a hard copy format or received via the electronic channels, meeting the requirements of the applicable legislation.
- 33. A payment order, when submitted in a hard copy format, shall be considered received at the time of its submission to the Bank directly by the Payer or through the Beneficiary, and when submitted via the electronic channels - as per the procedure established for this purpose, while in confirmation it shall be registered indicating the date, hour and minutes in a chronological order of receipt. Should the payment order be received on a non-business day for the Bank, it shall be considered received on the next business day. The Bank shall determine the time periods for execution of the payment orders in Appendix 1, an integral part of the present General Terms and Conditions.
- 34. The Client shall inform the Bank in writing about the persons who are authorized on his/her behalf to submit and receive payment documents for performing payment services from his/her payment accounts.
- 35. The Client shall undertake not to disclose the names and the data of the persons with rights of disposal in respect of his/her payment accounts and the data for access to the payment electronic channels, as well as not to allow any possibility for other persons, who are not authorized by him/her as per this agreement and the legislation, to initiate payment transactions on these accounts. Should the aforementioned obligation be breached, the risk and the responsibility for the consequences from the executed transactions shall be borne by the Client.
- 36. The Bank shall not execute payment orders received by mail and submitted by persons different from the ones indicated to do this.
- 37. The Bank shall ensure the execution of a payment order received with it in compliance with the following terms and conditions:
- 37.1. An order or preliminary consent of the Client containing all the required standard details; signed by a person/s having right of disposal on the payment account and whose signature, in appearance, corresponds with the one affixed in the presence of a bank employee or the specimen submitted in a notary certified form and enclosed in the file of the Client-Payer, or by means of a payment order, respectively in an electronic form in accordance with the requirements of the Bank and of the legislation in force;
- 37.2. The payment order is not in conflict with the legislation in force, the applicable payment rules and the conditions for keeping a payment account; and it is attached to the documents required by virtue of a regulation, an agreement, to which the Client-Payer is a party, or other documents required by the Bank for the execution of the respective transaction;
- 37.3. Upon available sufficient funds on the payment account of the Client-Payer, including the amount of the transfer and all fees and commissions due and payable to the Bank and the other participants in the payment process for the execution of the payment transaction, in accordance with the Tariff effective currently.
- 37.4. The Client-Account Holder of an insolvency account shall dispose with the funds on it through the receivers representing it only after the submission of an authorization by the relevant regional court (the court in charge of insolvency matters) for each individual case of disposal. The persons authorized by the receivers, by means of an explicit notary certified power of attorney, may dispose with the funds on the account after the submission of the above-mentioned authorization by the court as well as an explicit authorization by the regional court (the court in charge of insolvency matters), whereby the court authorizes the receivers to authorize third parties to have their rights pursuant to Art. 658, para.1, item 9 of the Commerce Act.
- 38. The Bank shall not be obliged to verify if the ordered payment transaction is in line with the will of the Client-Payer. The commercial operations paid through the Bank are irrelevant to it.
- 39. The Bank shall execute the payment order only if the ordered amount and the entitlements of the Bank, in accordance with item 37.3, in total are up to the amount of the available funds on the account of the Client-Payer or up to the amount of the agreed loan, if any. Otherwise, the Bank shall not execute the payment order.
- 40. The Bank shall not perform partial transfers under separate payment transactions. Partial payments may only be made in the cases of enforcement as per the established legal procedure, upon performing an automatic correcting transfer and/or upon exercising the right of direct debiting by the Bank.
- 41. The executed payment orders, which were submitted to the Bank in accordance with the requirements set in item 37 are the necessary and sufficient valid reason for the ordered transactions to be executed with due diligence on the part of the Bank, whereas the consequences from executing the transactions shall be at the expense of the Client-Payer.
- 42. The Bank shall not be held liable, having executed in good faith and in accordance with the present General Terms and Conditions a payment transaction ordered to it in writing by a person/s, whose signature/s on the payment order, affixed outside the Bank correspond/s to the specimens of the persons with rights of disposal in respect of the account and which person/s on the grounds of unambiguous circumstances appear/s to be authorized to dispose with the cash available on it. The risk and the consequences from the execution of payment orders which appear to be regular at first sight, but are counterfeit (inauthentic, with false content), or which are accompanied by counterfeit documents and declarations, result from failure to fulfill the Client's obligations referred in item 37 above and shall be borne by the Client.
- 43. The Bank shall not be held liable for the consequences and damages resulting from payment orders executed by it, which are incompletely, inaccurately or wrongly drawn up by the Payer under the payment transaction, and/or for the execution/ non-execution of which sufficient funds are lacking. The risk from such transactions shall be borne by the Payer.
- 44. The Bank shall not exercise control over the subject and/or the compliance of the transaction representing grounds for executing the payment transaction, unless the obligation for such control arises from an agreement or a legislative act. The Bank shall not be held liable for the ordinary bank intermediation under transactions with its Clients.
- 45. For the execution of payment services in foreign currency, the Client shall submit to the Bank all the necessary documents that are required pursuant to the Currency Act, Ordinance No. 28 of the MF and of the BNB on the Information and Documents Submitted to Payment Service Providers in Executing Third Party Cross-border Transfers and Payments and any other applicable legislative acts.

46. In accordance with the requirements of Ordinance No. 3 of the BNB of 18 April 2018 on the Terms and Procedure for Opening Payment

Accounts, Executing Payment Transactions and Using Payment Instruments, the Bank reserves its right automatically to:

46.1. collect its due and payable receivables for opening, keeping, maintaining and closing of a bank account, servicing of transactions and interest rates from the funds available on it or on any other account of the Client held with it;

46.2. Debit the Client's bank accounts in case of possible additional expenses of other banks - its correspondent banks in relation to the execution of transactions by and of the Client on his/her bank accounts.

SECTION IX. EXECUTION OF CREDIT TRANSFERS

47. The Bank shall execute credit transfers as per the provisions of the present General Terms and Conditions by debiting the payment account of a Client in accordance with the terms for execution of received payment orders pursuant to Appendix 1, which is an integral part of these General Terms and Conditions.

48. The Bank shall credit the account of an intermediary or a payment service provider of the Beneficiary upon ordered credit transfers, or the account of the Client upon received credit transfers in accordance with the value dates indicated in Appendix 1, which is an integral part of these General Terms and Conditions.

49. The Payer may negotiate with the Bank preferential credit value dates as well (current value date), for which he/she shall pay the respective commission as per the Tariff.

50. The terms and conditions, under which the Bank shall accept credit transfers (ordered or received) for execution with instructions regarding the charges, are as follows:

50.1. "Charges on the transaction are shared" - the Payer and the Beneficiary shall jointly pay the fees and commissions to the Bank of the Payer and to the Bank of the Beneficiary, respectively. In case of an ordered credit transfer, the charges of UniCredit Bulbank AD shall be at the expense of the Payer, the fees of the other banks (the bank of the Beneficiary and the intermediary banks) shall be at the expense of the Beneficiary. In case of a received credit transfer, the fees of UniCredit Bulbank AD and of the intermediary banks shall be at the expense of the Beneficiary, and the charges of the bank of the Payer shall be at the expense of the Payer.

50.2. "All charges on the transaction are at the expense of the Payer" („OUR guaranteed") - the Payer does not pay any other charges beyond the transaction fee and the additional transaction fee, specified in the Tariff, so that the Beneficiary's payment account is credited with the exact amount specified by the Payer in the payment order.

50.3. "All charges on the transaction, including those of the Bank, are at the expense of the Beneficiary" - in the cases where the account of the Beneficiary is held with a bank outside the European Economic Area, regardless of the currency of the payment. The Bank shall not accept for execution payment orders with instruction "All charges on the transaction, including those of the Bank, are at the expense of the Beneficiary" where the transaction is in favour of a Beneficiary, whose account is held with a bank in a country within the European Economic Area, excluding the Swiss Confederation.

50.4. The Payer can negotiate with the Bank preferential terms and conditions for processing of his/her payment orders on his/her request and initiative.

50.5. The Bank shall accept for execution with it received credit transfers in favour of its Clients and cash-on-hand transfers with instructions "All charges on the transaction, including those of the Bank, are at the expense of the Beneficiary" without being liable and regardless of whether other providers involved in the payment cycle have withheld their fees and commissions from the amount of the transfer.

51. The Bank shall not be obliged to credit the payment account of the Beneficiary before the funds, which are subject of the credit transfer, are received on its account.

52. The Bank shall not exercise control and shall not be held liable for the time for execution and the value dates, which other payment service providers apply in processing ordered or received credit transfers.

53. When processing payment orders outside the country, the Bank shall have the right to:

53.1. organize on behalf of the Sender translation of the required details in case the Client has not prepared them in English;

53.2. compile the electronic order to the provider of the Beneficiary in accordance with the requirements of the provider of the beneficiary and/or the legislation of the respective country, (as far as known to the Bank), and within the instructions of the Client.

54. The Bank shall execute cash on hand transactions (without an opened account) in accordance with the terms for execution of paper-based payment orders that are indicated in Appendix 1 to the present General Terms and Conditions. In such cases, the debit value date shall be the time of receipt of the available amount of the cash-on-hand transfer after the payment of the relevant charges of the Bank pursuant to the Tariff.

55. The Payer under a cash-on-hand transaction shall bear the full responsibility for the correct, accurate and precise drawing up of the payment order together with all the required standard details, containing the required and necessary correct, exact and complete information for the execution of the cash-on-hand transaction.

56. In case an executed cash-on-hand transaction is returned by the bank to the Beneficiary, regardless of the reason for this, the Bank shall inform the Payer by a notification sent to the address indicated by him /her. Any returned cash transfer shall be kept with the Bank for a maximum term of 5 years.

57. The Bank shall pay received cash-on-hand transfers upon request by the Beneficiary, in any case no later than 7 days after the date on which the funds are received on an account of the Bank, Any unclaimed cash-on-hand payments after this term shall be returned to the Payer.

SECTION X. EXECUTION OF DIRECT DEBITS IN NATIONAL CURRENCY

58. The Bank shall execute payment transactions using direct debit in compliance with the requirements of the effective legislation and under the following terms and conditions:

58.1. The Payer has given preliminary consent for direct debit as per a sample form at the branch where his/her account is held, in any case indicating the amount up to which a request for payment may be executed. The Payer shall send to the Beneficiary of the transfer a copy of the consent.

58.2. Availability of financial coverage on the account of the Payer with the Bank for the amount of the payment and the charges pursuant to the currently applicable Tariff;

58.3. The requirements for making the payment have been met where such are indicated in the consent for direct debit.

59. In case the Payer has specified conditions for the execution of the direct debit, the Bank shall execute a payment under an order for direct debit only after making a formal check for compliance of the submitted documents and the required paperwork as per the conditions defined for the transfer and the execution of the set requirements.

60. In case the order for direct debit is not executed on the date indicated for execution due to non-fulfillment of the terms and conditions referred in item 59, the Bank shall retain the order for direct debit up to 5 (five) business days from the date of receipt of the order for direct debit, or from the date for execution, if different from the first one. If during that period the requirements under item 58 are not cumulatively met, the Bank shall reject the execution of the order for direct debit and it shall inform the payment service provider of the Beneficiary about it.

61. The Bank shall execute direct debit payment transactions, provided that the order for direct debit contains clear and unambiguous conditions and parameters necessary for the execution.

SECTION XI. REJECTION OF EXECUTION OF PAYMENT TRANSACTIONS

62. The Bank shall have the right to reject the execution of a payment order in the following cases:

62.1. If the Client has submitted payment documents, which are not properly drawn up and/or do not have all the required standard details necessary for their execution, i.e. there is missing, incomplete or inaccurate data;

62.2. The Payer has not provided on the date of execution of the payment transaction financial coverage for the amount of the transfer and for the fees and commissions due and payable to the Bank and the other participants in the payment process;

62.3. The execution of the payment order by the Bank would entail a breach of the regulations of the Bank, the imperative regulations of the Bulgarian legislation, any court/arbitration ruling or an administrative act;

62.4. In other cases specified in an agreement, law or these General Terms and Conditions.

63. The Client shall confirm that he/she has been informed about the cases, in which the Bank rejects the execution of a Payment order, whereby the Client shall pay the Bank a fee for the processing of the payment documents pursuant to the Tariff. The Client shall pay a fee for adjustment/change, pursuant to the Tariff, for every amendment that is made to the payment orders and documents submitted by him/her until the date of their entering for execution.

64. The Client shall be entitled to order again the same payment transaction as per the procedure defined in the applicable legislation and these GTC, where for this purpose he/she shall submit new payment documents, drawn up to include all the required standard details and at a time when sufficient financial coverage may be provided for the amount of the transfer, together with the fees and commissions due and payable to the Bank.

65. The Bank shall have the right not to execute, to delay or stop respectively the execution of payment orders in case of any doubt that they do not meet the requirements of the Law on Measures against Money Laundering, its Implementing Rules and the Measures Against Financing of Terrorism Act, as well as in the cases where additional checks are necessary for ascertaining facts and circumstances related to the application of those legislative acts.

66. Upon receipt of a charging order from legally authorized entities against bank accounts in BGN and foreign currency, the order shall be executed pursuant to the provisions of the effective legislation.

67. The Bank shall not be held liable for blocked funds and/or transactions on the part of another Bank, acting as a participant in the payment process, during the execution of payments by order /in favour of individuals and legal persons and countries, which are subject to restrictions and/or sanctions.

SECTION XII. IRREVOCABILITY OF THE PAYMENT ORDER

68. The Client-Payer may not cancel a payment order after its receipt by the Bank, respectively after giving his/her consent to the execution of the payment order initiated by or through the Beneficiary.

69. A payment order, which has been accepted by the Bank, may only be canceled by the Client in the following cases:

69.1. In case of a credit transfer for a particular day or after the expiry of a particular term or on the day that the Client-Payer provides to the Bank the necessary funds for the execution of the payment order - by the Payer - on the business day preceding the day agreed for the execution, at the latest;

69.2. In case of a direct debit - by the Payer - until the end of the business day, preceding the agreed day for debiting his/her account, at the latest.

70. After the expiry of the terms referred in item 69, however no later than the date of crediting the account of the Beneficiary, the payment order may be canceled only if there is agreement on this between the Bank and Client, whereas for direct debit the consent of the Beneficiary shall also be required.

71. The Client may cancel the execution of a payment order by submitting a written notice to the Bank before the execution has begun.

72. In case of cancellation of a payment order, the Client shall pay a fee for cancellation of a transfer order, pursuant to the Tariff.

SECTION XIII. AUTOMATIC CORRECTING TRANSFER

73. The Bank shall have the right to make an automatic correcting transfer from the account of the Client in the cases envisaged in the law.

74. The automatic correcting transfer shall be in such an amount, upon which the payment account is restored to the condition in which it would have been before the execution of the wrongly executed transaction.

75. An automatic correcting transfer may be made notwithstanding existing limitations in the effective legislation, the Bank Account Agreement and/or these GTC, insofar as the funds received as a result of the wrongly executed payment order do not belong to the Account Holder.

76. Any losses shall be borne by the Client, regardless of the amount, should they result from unauthorized or inaccurately executed payment transaction, as a result from fraud or non-fulfillment of the Client's obligations in using the respective payment service or due to his/her negligence.

SECTION XIV. BANK SECRECY

77. The secrecy of the accounts shall be maintained. Information on the transactions and the funds available on the bank accounts of the Client shall only be provided to this Client and/or a person authorized by the Client for this purpose with a notary certified power of attorney, pursuant to the relevant legal procedure, as well as to the competent authorities in compliance with the legal procedure.

78. The Client shall be obliged not to disclose to third parties the information on his/her bank accounts and not to create, in any other way, conditions for access to information, data and documents, related to his/her accounts, taking all the measure in order to prevent any possible unauthorized transactions on them by persons who have not been authorized for this.

79. By signing the Application, the Client agrees and authorizes the Bank to provide information, which is bank secrecy or personal data of persons representing the Client to its lawyers, accountants, auditors and other external consultants and persons working for the Bank, as well as to other financial institutions in the country and abroad, in the cases where those are part of the same banking group or are related to the Bank within the meaning of the applicable law, including for the purposes of offering new products and services.

SECTION XV. PREVENTION AND CONTROL

80. UniCredit Bulbank AD shall not open and maintain bank accounts, and respectively shall not accept payments and shall not execute ordered transactions on and from the bank accounts, which are intended for collecting amounts in relation to unsolicited commercial communications and offers, sent to undisclosed recipients, whose conditions allow for the consideration not to be executed and/or are gambling-based and/or are aimed at using unfair and/or misleading, aggressive, trade practices made in bad faith and actions and results prohibited by the law and/or money laundering and financing of terrorism and/or fraud of some kind and abuse of the trust of UniCredit Bulbank AD, as a servicing bank, and/or jeopardizing the reputation of the Bank and/or the banking system.

81. The Bank shall not execute transactions ordered by the Client in favour of persons that are subject to payment sanctions imposed in accordance with the officially established procedure and rules, or respectively when there are imposed internal or international sanctions/prohibitions on payments, the execution of which is in breach of the adopted restrictions and the consequences, in accordance with the restrictive regulations, resulting from the execution of transactions of such kind are entirely at the risk, responsibility and for the account of the Client-Ordering Party.

82. Upon an established breach of the prohibitions on the execution of transactions, specified in items 80 and 81 above, caused by the fault of the Client, the Bank shall immediately block his/her accounts with it for the transactions of disposal (receipt and/or order) of payments. The received transfers shall be returned to the Ordering Party through the bank of the Ordering Party. The payment orders shall not be accepted for execution. The Bank shall have the right to collect automatically, from the balances of the blocked bank accounts, the fees and commissions for their maintenance until the receipt from the Client-Account Holder of an order for closing his/her bank accounts with the Bank.

83. The Bank shall notify the Client-Account Holder of the established violations of the prohibitions specified in these GTC in respect of transactions on his/her bank accounts (acceptance and ordering of payments through unauthorized payment transactions) and the blocking of these accounts with it, in accordance with the provisions of item 82, by providing a bank statement for the blocked bank accounts, sent to the Client through the channel he/she has requested for the receipt of information on the status of his/her bank accounts.

84. The Client shall be obliged, within three days of the date of the notification pursuant to item 83, to order the closing of his/her bank accounts with the Bank, indicating where the balance on them should be transferred, after deducting the receivables which are due and payable by the Client to the Bank. In case there is a preservation order against a bank account, the account shall be closed after the completion of the enforcement/ interim proceedings, with due cancellation of the preservation order by the authority which has issued it and the available balance, if such remains, shall be transferred onto the account indicated by the Client after the enforcement of the account preservation order.

SECTION XVI: DISPUTE RESOLUTION

85. In case the Client has any objections concerning the execution of a particular payment service, he/she may submit a written objection to the Bank and the latter shall examine this objection and shall notify the Client of its opinion within 15 business days of the date of receipt of the complaint.

By way of exception, when within the specified period the Bank cannot provide a decision for reasons beyond its control, the Bank shall send a response to the Client, indicating the reasons for the delay and the period within which the Client will receive a decision on the complaint. In any case, the time limit for obtaining a decision may not exceed 35 business days from the date of receipt of the complaint.

86. In case the Bank does not provide its decision within the period specified in the preceding item or if the Client is not satisfied with the decision, the dispute may be referred to the Conciliation Commission on Payment Disputes or the competent Bulgarian court of law.

SECTION XVII: SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

87. The Bank shall have the right to amend and supplement these General Terms and Conditions, notifying the Client of this at least two months prior to the date on which the amendments enter into force, by means of communications in the branches of UniCredit Bulbank AD as well as their publication on the website of the Bank. By derogation from the previous sentence, amendments and supplements made to Sections I, II, III, XV, XVI and XVII of these General Terms and Conditions shall enter into force immediately, as of the date of their approval by the Bank. The Client can obtain information on the foreseen changes on paper upon request at the teller's desks of the Bank.

87.1. The amended General Terms and Conditions shall preserve and continue their effect for the existing legal relations.

88. The amendments to these GTC shall be binding for the Client, unless he/she notifies the Bank in writing that he/she does not accept them prior to the date of their entry into force. In case the Client does not agree with the proposed amendments, he/she shall have the right to terminate the Agreements concluded with the Bank and to close the relevant bank accounts prior to the date of entry into force of the amendments.

89. All funds of the Client, which are deposited on bank accounts with the Bank, in accordance with the product group to which the specific account belongs as per its terms and conditions, including the accrued interests, are guaranteed by the Bulgarian Deposit Insurance Fund (BDIF) in accordance with the applicable regime and the maximum amount of the guaranteed total amount specified in the Law on Bank Deposit Guarantee.

90. The provisions referred in item 89 shall not be applied and/or the guaranteed bank deposit amounts shall not be reimbursed with regard to:

90.1. Individuals who have acquired rights on the deposited funds as a result of executed transactions of disposal with the account in the period of effect of the measures under Art.116, para.2, items 2 and 3 of the Credit Institutions Act and after the date of issuing an act under Art. 20, para. 1 of the Law on Bank Deposit Guarantee.

90.2. banks, where deposits are made on their behalf and for their account; financial institutions under Art. 3 of the Credit Institutions Act; insurers and reinsurers under Art. 8 of the Insurance Code; pension insurance companies and funds for mandatory and voluntary pension insurance; investment intermediaries; collective investment schemes, national investment funds, alternative investment funds and special investment purpose vehicles; budget organizations under § 1, item 5 of the supplementary provisions of the Public Finance Act; the Fund for Compensation of Investors, the Bulgarian Deposit Insurance Fund, and the Guarantee Fund under Art. 287 of the Insurance Code.

90.3. deposits that result from or are related to transactions or actions constituting money laundering within the meaning of Art. 2 of the Law on Measures Against Money Laundering or terrorist financing within the meaning of the Law on Measures against Financing of Terrorism, established by a final verdict.

90.4. deposits, the owner of which has not been identified as per Art. 54 of the Law on Measures Against Money Laundering as at the date of issuance of an act under Art. 20, para. 1 of the Law on Bank Deposit Guarantee.

90.5. amounts on accounts, where there have been no transactions initiated by the depositor for the last 24 months preceding the date of issuance of an act under Art. 20, para. 1 of Law on Bank Deposit Guarantee, and where the balance on each such account is less than BGN 20.

91. The Deposit Insurance Fund shall pay the guaranteed amounts of the deposited funds through a commercial bank indicated by the management board.

91.1. In case of an account in a foreign currency, the depositor shall receive the equivalent amount in BGN of the guaranteed amount, converted by the exchange rate of the Bulgarian National Bank on the start date of the payment of the deposit guarantee.

92. All relations of the Bank with its Clients, which have not been settled in these General Terms and Conditions or in the Bank Account Agreement shall be arranged by virtue of the Law on Payment Services and Payment Systems (LPSPS), the statutory acts for its application as well as any other applicable Bulgarian laws.

93. On the basis of Art. 67, para. 4 of the LPSPS, the provisions of the following texts of the LPSPS shall not be applied with regard to the Bank Account Agreements concluded by the Bank with the Clients: Art. 68, para. 1, 78, 80, , Art. 85, 91, 92 and Art. 93, para. 1 and art. 94.

94. These General Terms and Conditions have been adopted by the Management Board of the Bank by a decision under Minutes No. 14 of 18.03.2014, effective 22.07.2014, and amended and supplemented pursuant to a decision of the Management Board of the Bank under Minutes No. 30 of 05.07.2018, amended and supplemented pursuant to a decision of the Management Board of the Bank under Minutes No. 26 of 22.04.2020. The GTC are an implicitly inherent and integral part of each Agreement concluded by the Bank referring to the present GTC, and they shall be considered in their integrity as an integrated document and shall be applied unless otherwise provided for in the specific Agreement. When reference is made to a Framework Agreement and/or to the General Terms and Conditions for opening, servicing and closing bank account of legal entities and sole proprietors in a Bank Account Agreement, it shall be considered that reference is made to these General Terms and Conditions.
